

HR Student Games !!

Save the Date: September 24th, from 12-5pm, Awards Ceremony at 5:30pm

What are the HR Student Games?

The HR student games is a fun, laid back but competitive event where students compete in a jeopardy-like fashion to answer simple definition questions and some situational questions. In this competitive but laid back game, students compete to win (and bragging rights!)

When does it take place?

The student games take place during the Annual Utah SHRM Crossroads Conference on September 24th, 2019, from 12pm-5pm. Final Round and awards competition starts at 5:30. The student games will be held at the Davis Conference Center, located in Layton Utah.

Team Details:

Teams need to be between 4-6 students in size; there is no limit to # of teams; students must agree to the code of ethics found at the link below:

HR Student Games

The HR Student Games are happening soon! In this jeopardy style game, students will be answering definition and situational questions in a jeopardy-like fashion, competing against students from several Universities across the state of Utah. All students who participate, will also get to come to the Awards ceremony and a networking "Game Show" event that evening for free! (or $15 for those that are not participating in the games).

How do I register my Student Team?

To register, just email Steven Smith, Utah SHRM College Relations Director at steve@applicantpro.com by Sept 13th.
